LAST RITES FOR ROTH, BOLTON THIS AFTERNOON

LAKE VICTIMS FOUND AFTER LONG SEARCH

Services For Prominent Lawrence Sophomores Will Be Held At Chapel

Funeral services will be held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Lawrence Memorial Chapel for Carleton Roth, and Edmund Bolton, Lawrence sophomores, who were drowned on October 22, 1929, the victims of a hunting tragedy on Lake Winnebago. President H. M. Wriston announced yesterday in convocation that all 2:30 classes would be suspended today.

The bodies of the two young men were recovered from the waters of Lake Winnebago on Saturday and Sunday April 5 and 6. Both bodies were found near the spot where it was believed the boys had drowned last fall.

Ends Long Search

Bolton's body was sighted at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon about 200 feet off-shore by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Nelson, directly in front of the Herman Getchow cottage. Roth's body was sighted at 7:30 o'clock Sunday morning by Louis Bronen, employee at Waverly Beach, about 300 feet west of where Bolton's body was found, and only about 25 feet off-shore. Shore parties had been searching for the bodies during the last week.

Individual services over the two bodies were held this morning. Services were held over Roth's body from the Congregational church at 10 o'clock. Pallbearers were Tad Meyer, Donald Christiansen, Howard Pope, William Meyer, Harold Sperka, and Alvin Lang.

Services over Bolton's body were held at 10 o'clock from the All Saints Episcopal church. Pallbearers were Ross Cannon, Carl Wettengel, Roy Marston, William Bickel, Robert Mitchell, Reed Clark, Granville Calhoun and Robert Hunt.

The same men, all members of Beta Sigma Phi, fraternity brothers of the two former students, will serve as pallbearers at the services in Memorial chapel this afternoon.

Both Appleton Men

Both Bolton and Roth were graduated from Appleton high school in 1928 as honor students. Roth was editor of the Clarion and active in many other school projects during his high school career. He was a member of the Ariel staff and secretary in the boys' department at the Appleton Y.M.C.A. during his freshman year at Lawrence. Carleton was the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Roth, 1005 State-st.

Bolton, the son of Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Bolton, 818 East College-ave., was also active in Appleton high school activities and had one of the highest averages in the freshman class during his first year at Lawrence. He won the trophy awarded by the Beta Sigma Phi fraternity to the freshman member with the highest scholastic record.

Lost In Lake Storm

Both boys were drowned last October 22 when a skiff in which they had pushed off from shore overturned in the large lake waves several hundred feet from shore. A gale wind soon caught the boat and took it out into the lake, overturning it, before aid was able to reach the occupants. Searching parties scoured the lake shores for several days, boats dragged the lake bottom and airplanes were pressed into service in an unsuccessful attempt to recover the bodies last fall.

Advertising Group Adopts Policy; Student Senate Approves

Women To Vote On Proposal For New Government Body

Plan To Unite W.S.G.A. And Y.W.C.A.; Constitution Drawn Up

A proposal to merge W.S.G.A. and Y.W.C.A. into a single community organization L.W.A., will be submitted to a plebiscite in student convocation tomorrow.

The action comes as the culmination of a period of activity on the part of the elective officers of both groups who have recognized that the double financial burden, the overlapping of functions, and the lack of centralization of student activity has made impossible the free and efficient functioning of either group.

The proposed community organization will retain the ideal of Y.W.C.A. to promote a richer spiritual and cultural life; and the judicial machinery of W.S.G.A. will remain unchanged, while the combined effort of both organizations will preserve and intensify campus traditions.

In these ways the L.W.A. as a community organization hopes to give every girl a happier and fuller life while at Lawrence. Each girl is responsible for electing representatives who will endeavor to promote a program suited to her best interests.

The constitution as drawn up by representatives of Y.W.C.A. and W.S.G. is as follows:

German Play To Be Given Tonight

"Minna von Barnhelm" by Lessing Is German Club Offering At Zion Church

"Minna von Barnhelm", a comedy by Lessing, is to be presented by the members of the German club at the Zion Lutheran church parish school tonight at 8:15 o'clock. This year's presentation is by far the most elaborate undertaking ever attempted by the organization and an extremely long practise period was necessary to insure a smooth performance.

The play has as its leading feminine character Herta Mueller whose ability was displayed last year in her interpretation of Magda in Suderman's "Heimat". The part of Tellheim, the leading male character, is played by Carl Schiebler. Schiebler carried the male lead in last year's production.

An outstanding feature of this year's German play is the fact that the members of the cast are to wear costumes of the Colonial period. The costumes for the presentation have been secured through a Milwaukee concern and they are the same that were used last year by the students of Milwaukee Downer in "Minna von arnhelm".

Tickets for the play have been on sale by the members of the German club and it is reported that a good deal of interest has been shown by students and townspeople.

HOME CONCERT OF GLEE CLUB ON THURSDAY

Singers End 35th Successful Tour; Appear Here Thursday At Chapel

The Lawrence College men's Glee club has just returned from their thirty-fifth annual two-week concert tour, and will appear in home concert at the Memorial Chapel, Thursday evening at 8:15. That they return successful, is evidenced by the audience of 1250 people who heard them in their Madison concert on March 23, and by reports of proportionately large audiences which they have had in the smaller cities visited.

Sing Same Program

The program which they will sing on Thursday is the one they have sung on all of their other concert appearances. It is opened with a group song by the entire ensemble: the "Alma Mater" by Dressler, "Hymn before action" by Davies, "O Peaceful Night" and "Reaping" by Clarke. Wenzel Albrecht, '30, violin soloist, will play the Symphonie Espagnole, by Lalo. The Glee club will continue with: "The Guard Passes" by Getry, "At Parting" by Bartholomew, and "The Sea" by Bornsheim. David Bruce Scoular, '30, tenor soloist, will sing, "Slow Horses, Slow," Brawlowicz, "Iris," Wolf, and "I Love Life" by Mana-Zucca.

College Songs End Program

"Walk Together, Children," Johnson, "Plantation," Steiner, and "Baby-lon's Wave" by Gounod, make up the next group, which will be sung by the club. Russell Danburg, '31, piano soloist, will play the A flat "Polonaise" by Chopin. Wenzel Albrecht will again play a group including: "Larghetto," Handel, "On Wings of Song," Mendelssohn, and "Salterelle," Wienawski-Thibaud.

The last group on the program will be the "Songs in the Twilight" group, opened with the "Viking Song," by Treize-Maesch; a solo by Scoular, "Heidelberg" by Luders, with chorus sung by the Glee club; "Kentucky Babe" by Geidel; a solo by Jack Houren, '33, and college songs, sung by the Glee Club.

Street Car Line Abandoned Here

World's Oldest Railway Completes 40 Years Of Service Sunday

Abandonment of the oldest electric railway line in the world, the street car line which has operated on College avenue since August 1886 was effected Sunday evening. With the removal of the trolley which has operated through the Lawrence campus for almost 40 years the Fox river valley has now only two electric street railways, one in Green Bay and one in Oshkosh.

The Appleton line was built by Charles J. Vandepoele and had 4½ miles of track. Montgomery, Alabama, was the only city in the country with more track, boasting 11 miles. The first cars for the Appleton system were constructed by the Pullman company. The original company was a financial failure.

During the early years of operation the company had much difficulty in keeping the cars on the tracks. The tracks were laid on unpaved streets and were not solid. When the current was turned on the cars often slid off into the dirt.

The concluding group contained two numbers by Prokofiev: "Gavotte" and "Suggestions Diaboliques", which pleased the audience exceedingly; the "Sonetto del Petrarca" No. 123, by Liszt, which was beautifully played, with subtlety and deep feeling; and concluded with his own "Variations on two themes from Carmen", in which he displayed incredible technical skill and power.

As encores to the insistent applause, he played the Chopin "Minute Valse", "Capriccio" by Dohnanyi, and "La Chasse" by Pagadini-Liszt.

INDIVIDUAL AD SOLICITING HIT BY BOARD PLAN

Means Cooperation With Merchants; Seven Plank Plan Drawn Up

By Hollace Roberts

In an effort to put an end to "unbusinesslike methods of some student projects to sell advertising to the merchants," a seven-plank platform has been adopted by the Advertising Board of Control and approved by the Student Senate, completing the organization of this board the formation of which was announced last fall.

As a result of the action of the board and the senate, it will be necessary for any student or student organization wishing to solicit advertising from the merchants of Appleton, to first receive the approval of the board. This action was taken to put a stop to unscrupulous methods employed by some student groups in obtaining advertising from the town businessmen in the past.

Merchants To Cooperate

Carrying out an agreement reached by the board, arrangements have been made, through the Appleton Chamber of Commerce, with the merchants to listen with interest to projects having the approval of the board and to pay no attention to projects not having the endorsement of this body.

"The Advertising Board of Control, appointed by the Student Senate last fall, made a policy which at a recent meeting was endorsed by the senate with the provision that in case of controversy, appeal can be made to the student senate," Prof. F. W. Clippinger said following the approval of the platform.

"The board was established by the senate at the request of student organizations because of the unbusinesslike methods of some student projects to sell advertising to the merchants and the general lack of organization which meant unsuccessful competition among campus organizations for financial support from the local merchants," he said.

Seven Point Platform

The platform of the board, as endorsed by the Student Senate, is as follows:

1. "It is the primary aim of the Advertising Board of Control to maintain a spirit of friendly co-operation (1) between the merchants of Appleton and Lawrence College, and (2) between the various organizations of the student body.

2. "The board is definitely opposed to the solicitation of contributions from merchants of the city under the guise of advertising. The Board will endorse no project which in its opinion does not have potential advertising value.

3. "The Board believes that the income from advertising should be limited to an amount sufficient to cover the actual cost of the particular form of service which an organization is attempting to provide.

Self Profit Schemes Hit

4. "The Board will not endorse projects which are for the purpose of financial profit to an individual.

5. "The Board will solicit the co-operation of the local Chamber of Commerce and the merchants of the city by asking them (1) to support those student projects whose advertising solicitors present the endorsement of the Board, and (2) to report to the Board any irregular or unbusinesslike actions of student solicitors.

6. "The Board believes that the All-College club requirement that

Horowitz Displays His Genius In Concert Here

By Helen Hector

Vladimir Horowitz, the greatest pianistic sensation of the age, who has amazed millions of music lovers during his three American concert tours, added another audience to his list of triumphs when he played a most stupendous program in the Memorial Chapel, Saturday evening.

So many superlatives have been applied to the performances of this superb artist, that one is inclined to be a bit skeptical on hearing him for the first time. But before he had completed his first number, he had won his Appleton audience, and made them spell-bound by his mastery of his instrument, by his amazing muscular control, and by his perfect interpretation.

He opened with the D major organ prelude and fugue of Bach, arranged by Busoni, which was met with a storm of applause, of the sort which is unusual except by an audience made up of exclusive devotees of that great contrapuntal composer. The Scarlatti "Capriccio", which completed the first group was played with delicacy and incredible degrees of shading. Two Internizzi from Opus 118, and 119, by Brahms more limpidly subtle, and played with fineness of nuance and tone. The Scherzo in F minor, by the same composer, was brilliantly done, with tremendous force.

A group of Chopin compositions followed the intermission. He played the G minor allude; Two Mazurkas; two Etudes: the F major, and the G cat major, called the "Black-key etude" and the Valse Brillante in A flat. If some critics have seemed to find Horowitz's interpretation of Chopin "heavy", there was no indication of that quality in his performance here. He played with delicate tone and artistic shading. His ability to build up great fortissimo climaxes, and then to bring them down, in a moment, to the faintest pianissimo murmur, makes one gasp with amazement.

Synthetic or Metamorphosed Religion?

Results of the religion questionnaire, circulated at chapel yesterday, should be interesting. While Lawrence may have a fair representation in the churches of Appleton on Sunday mornings, it is probable that a majority of the students, if marking the questionnaire conscientiously, would be forced to place a check after statement number 27, which read—"I do not know enough about the church to have an honest opinion." Perhaps this guess is an unfair one, but—

This is an age of comfort and luxury. Hundreds of labor saving devices have been invented; the efforts of man seem to be expended toward making his life more devoid of work, pain, and annoyance, and it is not far wrong to say that these devices are being applied to religion and morals too.

The philanthropist who gives a few thousand dollars to charity and then expects a clean bill of health for his erring soul from St. Peter, is a good example. In his case he would buy ablation in concentrated capsules.

The golfer who makes eighteen holes each Sunday morning rather than attending church, and thinks he can square himself with himself and the world by donating to the finances of the church, or by inviting the preacher out to dinner, is another. Of course he is not merely trying to dodge church by playing golf on Sunday mornings; he is "putting" the time to better use. He has a thousand and one alibies for his actions. And so it goes. In a hundred different ways people are trying to modify their religion and adopt it to their convenience.

College students, always quick to take over the customs and modes of the idle rich—and the idle, are attempting to make their religion convenient and "ultra-conventional." Many at Lawrence, after taking the required course in religion, assume that this action excuses them from church attendance. Incidentally, it gives them the degree of moderns in the matter of religion. And so, through a process of religious evolution, these moderns become skeptics; they are religiously enlightened, and are privileged to scoff with the elite.

Only three weeks ago, on a Sunday morning, a bridge game was in progress at a fraternity house. The radio was turned on and a sermon had been broadcast. Caustic remarks and comments had been freely intermingled with the conventional bridge conversation. As the last strains of the postlude were dying away, one of the brothers covered a yawn and remarked:

"Rather a good sermon today."

"Yeah, it was," answered another. "I bid a spade."

5000-kilowatt turbine-generator installed in 1903 at the Fish Street station of the Commonwealth Edison Company, Chicago

When Small Machines Were Big

MORE than a quarter century ago, the Commonwealth Edison Company, prophetically alive to the immense possibilities of the future, ordered from General Electric a 5000-kilowatt steam turbine—in those days a giant of electric power.

To-day, a General Electric turbine-generator of 208,000-kilowatt capacity sends out its vast energy to the Chicago Metropolitan District.

College-trained men played a responsible part in the engineering and manufacture of both machines—just as they serve in important capacities in the engineering, production, and distribution of all General Electric equipment, large or small.

Rasmussen To Aid New Coach; Divide Squad Into Two Drill Groups

Practice in tackling, blocking, and other fundamentals were the orders given by Coach Eddie Kotal to his prospective griders in their first practice session of the year.

About 40 men answered the initial call of the newly appointed football coach who will succeed head coach Clarence Rasmussen, Viking gridiron mentor for the last two seasons. The new coach plans to use the same system taught by the former head coach and feels confident in the success of the style. Rasmussen, whose resignation does not become effective until the end of the present college year, will be on hand to assist Kotal.

Veterans Missing

Equipment has been issued to all the men, and the squad will be divided into two groups, one of linemen and a second of the backs. Each group will practice an hour a day for a three week period at the end of which time a game will be played.

Graduation will rob Kotal of St. Mitchell, last year's captain and all-Midwest end, Krohn and Voeks, two consistent line performers, and Brunsat, Rasmussen, and Gelbke, backs. However, the new grid leader will have co-captains-elect Laird and Fischl, as well as the veterans Trankle, Miller, Schneller, Bickle, Velder, Phenecie, Morton, Vincent, and Bickle.

The men reporting for practice are: ends, Laird, Phenecie, Coffey; tackles, Bickle, Schneller, Hovde; guards, Vincent, Hall, Amundson; centers, Miller, Morton; backs, Fischl, Velder, Trankle, Lund, Hales, Barnes, Steinberg, Ryan, Schier, Farrish, and Schweger.

Members of last year's yearling squad reporting are Kallman, Mock, Feind, Smith, Holmes, Johnson, Elias, Thorne, Atwood, Van Roo, Cinkosky, Marston, Baird, McNeil, Meyer, Kexel, Christianson, Davies, Masden, Peters, Rafoth, and Haase.

Marston Wins Track Tourney

Takes Three Firsts To Win Trophy; Calhoun Second, Cannon Third

Taking three firsts, two seconds, and one fourth, Roy Marston, '33, won the first annual all-college track championship Saturday afternoon with a total of 545 points. The meet was held at the new Alexander gymnasium. Marston will be presented with a silver loving cup as an emblem of his victory.

Marston tied with Calhoun for first place in the high jump, by clearing the bar at five feet, seven inches; he took first in the 440 yard dash, and the 45 yard low hurdles, second in the broad jump, and the 45 yard dash, and placed fourth in the shot put.

Although there were but five college track men entered in the battle for supremacy, sufficient interest was displayed to warrant the continuation of similar track meets in the future.

Pushing Marston hard for first honors, was Calhoun, who annexed a total of 515 points. Cannon copied third place with 485 points, Schier cinched fourth with 440 points, and Weld took fifth place with 410 points.

The summary of the meet is as follows:

High jump: 5 ft., 7 in., first, Marston and Calhoun; third, Schier; fourth, Weld; fifth, Cannon.

45 yard dash: first, Calhoun; second, Marston; third, Cannon; fourth, Schier; fifth, Weld.

Broad jump: 18 ft., 2½ in., first, Cannon; second, Marston; third, Calhoun; fourth, Schier; fifth, Weld.

45 yard low hurdles: first, Marston; second, Calhoun; third, Weld; fourth, Cannon; fifth, Schier.

Schiebler, Gebhardt Play In Handball Meet Finals

Mowing down all opponents, Schiebler and Gebhardt last week fought their way into the finals of the all-campus handball tourney, and were to meet today to decide the first handball championship of the college. Gebhardt pulled the surprise of the tournament when he defeated Ryan, who was looked upon earlier as a sure finalist. Concentrating on Ryan's left hand weakness, Gebhardt had little difficulty winning in two straight games.

Schiebler has had some tough competition in every round, dethroning Phenecie, Calhoun, and Rasmussen in the order given, but his accuracy on placement shots brought him out on top in each struggle.

Those selected for varsity by a committee of managers are as follows: Centers, Winifred Lockard, '33, and Betty Wiley, '31; forwards, Helen Snyder, '33, and Verna Lauritzen, '31; guards, Dorothea Krause, '31, and Helen Ziegler, '30.

FULLBACK AND END SELECTED BY LETTERMEN

Both Men Have Starred For Lawrence For Past Two Years

Paul Fischl, Manitowoc, and Kenny Laird, Black Creek, were elected co-captains of the 1936 Viking football eleven at a meeting of the letterman called by Coach Eddie Kotal last Friday afternoon.

At Manitowoc high school, Fischl was a star in football, basketball and track. He continued these sports at Lawrence and has become one of the most outstanding Viking athletes, winning varsity letters in the three major sports. Playing fullback on the varsity, he was the triple threat back field sensation of the Vikings for the last two years. His open field running against all Viking opponents will be long remembered by Lawrence followers. He was unanimously selected as member of the mythical Big Four eleven, and mentioned for a similar berth on the Midwest team.

Laird, an Appleton high school athlete, starred as a regular lineman on the Orange team for three years, and captained the Appleton basketball team in '26 and '27. The lanky end has played an important part in both offense and defense on Viking teams for the past two years. He was selected on the second Big Four mythical eleven. Laird is a counsellor at Coach C. H. Rasmussen's summer camp, along with football stars from Notre Dame and Yale.

D.I.'s Lead Greek Supremacy Race

Sig Eps Cut Down D.I. Lead; Theta Phis, Phi Taus, Betas All Close

Interfraternity Standings	Points
Delta Iota	733
Sig Eps	635
Theta Phis	495
Phi Taus	416
Betas	403
Psi Chis	342
Delta Sigs	154

Gathering 220 points for their first place tie in basketball, the Sig Eps whittled the Delta Iota lead in the supremacy race to 98 points. The D.I.'s took second honors in handball to increase their total a bit, while the Theta Phis slapped 220 points onto theirs in basketball, and 75 for a first place ranking in handball.

Thus far in the campaign the D.I.'s have never ranked below fourth place in any of the six sports, having finished first in tennis, first in bowling, tie for first in volleyball, second in handball, third in swimming, and tie for fourth in basketball. The Sig Eps lost ground when their keggers could do no better than fifth in the bowling classic, but a tie for first in volleyball and basketball, and second places in swimming and tennis have kept them up in the running, dangerously near the leaders.

The record of the Theta Phis is the most unique of any, their athletes having finished in last place in three
